WEATHER

The average temperature in Richmond in May ranges from a high of 79°F (26°C) to a low of 57°F (14°C)—mildly cool with a gentle breeze. Summer showers are known to occur so a raincoat or umbrella is encouraged.

RECOMMENDED DRESS/ATTIRE

Attire is business casual for the conference during the day. Temperatures in hotel and campus buildings can fluctuate—layers are recommended. Comfortable shoes are encouraged, as the group will be walking about ¼ mile from the hotel to the dinner location on Thursday evening and during the local cultural outing on Friday. Attire for the Thursday dinner is dressy casual/smart casual. A portion of the Friday cultural outing will be outside (weather permitting).
